

IMPERIAL

Kitchens and Baths Inc

The Benefits of Working with Imperial

- Better Business Bureau Confidence Rating of A+
- ServiceMagic.com 5-star rating
- Angie's List Reviews – A Rating for 10 out of 13 Responses, which 3 ranked as Pages of Happiness Nominees
- History of Professionalism for over 44 years
- EPA RRP Lead Certified installation department
- Nation Kitchen and Bath Association member with NKBA certified designer on staff
- Design service for both layout and color selection
- One stop shopping – almost everything is viewable in our showroom and we handle all aspect of the ordering process for you
- A lead carpenter, who is an Imperial employee, is assigned responsibility for your project
- Detailed floor plans, elevations and color renderings provide Imperial artisans the knowledge to assemble your project exactly as designed
- A full-time supervisor visits your home daily to ensure materials and lead carpenter concerns are addressed daily
- A full-time driver and company truck comes to your home promptly for debris removal, when it is appropriate
- Licensed and bonded electricians and plumbers work regularly under the guidance of our lead carpenters
- All employees of Imperial, and any sub-contractors we employ, are covered by Workers Compensation, leaving you protected from any worker's injury on your property
- $1,000,000 liability insurance provided to protect you from accidental mishap
- A relationship with most village building departments and a familiarity with their code requirements
- Your designer visits the project regularly and is responsible for the aesthetics of the finished room
- Color coordination of painting done on site as your project is coming to completion
- One year warrantee on workmanship
- On product we provide:
 - Imperial will always assist a client in product warrantee claims during the life of the product warrantee
 - Imperial will always service product we've installed, since 1966
- Six days a week, during business hours, a person is available to address any concerns you have and respond promptly

8918 W. Ogden Avenue Brookfield, IL 60513 ph 708.485.0020

www.imperialkitchensandbaths.com